The Perryman Fund Sale features generous discounts on educational materials in social studies, English, science, and guidance; all materials are donated by Social Studies School Service and other publishers. This annual Bargain Bonanza includes suitable materials for secondary and elementary students. The Perryman Sale this year will be held on Saturday, October 1, 2011 from 9:00 am to 12 noon. In addition, other activities will take place to include music, informational workshops, free materials, and some of the popular Los Angeles area food trucks.

The location of the event will be the parking lot at Social Studies School Service in Culver City at 10200 Jefferson Blvd (90232). This annual fund raiser is co-sponsored by the Southern California Social Science Association (SCSSA).

Materials offered for sale include books, simulation games, charts, reproducibles, posters, audiovisual kits, DVDs, videocassettes, and computer software. Most of the items have never been used; some are showroom and preview samples; some not current editions; and others are slightly damaged. All materials, however, will be sold at a fraction of their retail price.

Proceeds go to benefit the Perryman Fund for the Social Studies, named for Don Perryman, a Social Studies supervisor with the Los Angeles City Schools whose untimely death in 1974 was a great loss to the Social Studies community in California. The Perryman Fund conducts a mini-grant program which makes funds available to support classroom curriculum in schools in Los Angeles County, it is a major sponsor of History Day L.A., and it works to promote Social Studies education in California in a variety of other ways. The Perryman Fund is a California Non-Profit, Public Benefit Corporation; therefore, all purchases are donations to the Fund and tax deductible.
