

citizens. not spectators.

Simulating Elections on Your Campus

We have seen three consecutive Presidential elections with an increase in youth voter turnout, but participation among young voters is still only at the level it attained in the 1992 election. Simulation elections are a great way to encourage participation.

Arsalyn's 1st Annual Teacher Training: Simulating Elections on Your Campus

Save the date...

Thursday, August 13, 2009

9:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Glendora Unified School District

500 N. Lorraine

Glendora, CA 91741

What you'll get...

Presenter: Melissa Germann

Melissa Germann has been running District wide simulation elections in Glendora for over 8 years and will be sharing her step by step system for implementing simulation elections on your campus.

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Plus...$100.00 stipend for the 50 registered history-social science public school teachers who attend. The event is open to all grade levels.

For additional information, please contact:
Christian Lindke, Program Director — Arsalyn Program
(626) 914-5404 lindkec@arsalyn.org